SUBJECT: AFRICAN ACTIVITIES IN
THE UNITED STATES
IS - AFRICA ~~(u)~~

~~APPLICABLE BY~~

The Department of State, Bureau of Intelligence and Research, External Research Division, has published a booklet entitled "African Programs of U. S. Organizations, A Selective Directory" dated June, 1961.

This booklet sets out in some detail what appears to be a comprehensive list of colleges, universities, religious, missionary and business organizations that operate in some phase of their respective work in various sections of the continent of Africa. All of these facilities have their origin in or are directed from various cities in the US.

This material can best be characterized as an informative guide in meeting investigative problems in the African field. (X)(u)

NYO files reflect African sources, organizations and case files not mentioned in this material and it is more than likely that this prevails in other offices. This is pointed out to indicate instant data is not all inclusive. (X)(u)

It does, however, appear to contain such information as might be utilized for:

- a) Sources of general information
- b) Established sources of information, in particular areas of Africa.
- c) Possible informants.

(X)(u)

UACB, it is not suggested that offices receiving copies of this communication initiate a program of contacting all individuals and organizations indicated in respective field divisions. This would not preclude, however, such contacts in the event it became necessary or opportune for any number of reasons. (X)(u)

However, prior to contacting any of the possible sources mentioned, the normal preliminary steps should be taken to assure that a particular individual or organization should not be contacted. (X)(u)

In the case of institutions of learning, contacts should be made in accordance with existing instructions relative to such interviews. (X)(u)

In some instances, such as the Ford Foundation, Bureau authority should be obtained prior to contact. (X)(u)

~~✓~~ Corporation program in Africa dates from 1928 when first sizeable grants made for projects on African Continent.

Substantial grants made to Nigerian colleges and universities, also to Teachers College,
Columbia University, NYC, for a cooperative
Afro-Anglo-American program of education. It has given financial assistance to numerous
African countries noted elsewhere in this report.
